

Workshop on 'Women Empowerment' (02.12.2018, 06.12.2018 & 08.12.2018)

Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore organized a 3 days' Workshop on 'Women Empowerment' at the premises of the Sangrahalaya. The participants were the group of Women, who had participated in different Training Programmes of the Sangrahalaya throughout the year. In the first Two days of the Workshop the Women were involved in several types of activities and depending on their performance the Finalists were selected.

The last day of the Workshop was held on 08.12.2018. The Experts from various fields of the society had come on that day to interact with the Participants at the final day of this Workshop. The first session of the final day was started by the Welcome Address, delivered by the Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya. The Inaugural Speech was delivered by the Special Guest, Professor Prabir Kumar Dey, Director, PIMT, Bharat Sevashram Sangha. Shri Subhendu Kanjilal, Director, SAASE & W. Trust of North 24 Parganas District, presented his deliberation on Ideal Women. Smt. Kalyani Palui, Secretary, Khanpur Gano Unnoyon Kendra, Howrah, presented a visual presentation on Women Safety. Advocate Shri Kallol Roy delivered his lecture on Women Rights in the present society. Dr. Sunil Gope, Mentor, SAASE & W. Trust explained the subject on the awareness of Women Health. At the last session of the final day of this Workshop the Authority of the Sangrahalaya had announced the name of 12 participants as Finalists, who had performed in several activities of this Workshop for last two days. The Finalists were faced in several types of questions on the subject of this Workshop in front of the external experts. After following a long session the Experts had selected two participants for participating in the Championship Round. Smt Seema Biswas and Smt. Purna Paul were selected for the last and final round by the experts. According to the decision of the Experts Smt. Seema Biswas was selected as the Champion of 'SAMPURNA NO. 1 for the year of 2018-19. At the end of the Workshop All the Finalists were awarded by the Sangrahalaya and all the Participants took oath that they would try their level best to prepare the other Women to become a complete 'SAMPURNA' in future.

