The Report of Activities : 2016-17 (1st April, 2016 - 31st March, 2017)

True to its objective the Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore has succeeded in preserving and protecting the philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi through multifarious programmes and activities for the community. The current financial year witnessed the completion of the first phase of work of the two galleries of the Sangrahalaya with new modes of display combined with audio-visual aids. The renovation and upgradation work of the Sangrahalaya's building was funded by the Ministry of Culture, Government of India and the contract for the renovation work had been given to National Council of Science Museums, Kolkata, who have successfully completed the work through their unit Creative Museum Designs. The newly modified galleries were opened to the public on the occasion of the Centenary year celebration of Champaran Satyagraha on April 18, 2017.

In terms of programmes, projects and activities, the current financial year has been a very dynamic one with multifarious activities. The Sangrahalaya has indulged in different categories of educational activities ranging from scholarly programmes to programmes for the community at large and from in-house programmes to outreach programmes for schools in remote rural areas. A short summary of the activities of the Sangrahalaya in the financial year 2016-17 has been enumerated below.

1. Number of Visitors :

Near about 50,000 visitors visited the Sangrahalaya, including those who participated in the various programmes organized by the Sangrahalaya or utilized its services.

2. Eminent Speakers in Programmes :

- I. Professor Pradip Bhattacharya, Honourable Member of Parliament, Government of India.
- II. Sardar Amjad Ali, Former Member of Parliament, Government of India.

- III. Professor Rabiranjana Chattopadhyay, Former Minister, Department of Science and Technology, Government of West Bengal.
- IV. Shri A. Annamalai, Director, National Gandhi Museum, New Delhi
- V. Professor Tapati Mukherjee, Adhyakha, Rabindra Bhavana, Director, Culture and Cultural Relations, Visva-Bharati, Santiniketan.
- VI. Dr. Swapan Sur, Former OSD, Mother Dairy.
- VII. Shri Pranab Ghosh, Ichhamati Milk Union Limited, Government of West Bengal.
- VIII. Shri Mukut Roy Chowdhury, Former District Fishery Officer, Government of West Bengal.

3. Newly Acquired Assets :

- a) Eight display panels in Roll-Up Standee for the Exhibition Set 'Satyagraher Satyanusandhan' (The Story of Satyagraha by Mahatma Gandhi) portable and convenient for mobile exhibitions.
- b) One Desktop Computer for cataloging of the books in the library of the Sangrahalaya.

4. Library :

The present financial year witnessed the growth of the library with the addition of new books (both by purchase as well as gifts) and periodicals thereby attracting the attention of a number of readers, scholars and visitors. At present the number of books at the library of the Sangrahalaya is approximately a little above 12,180.

5. The Sangrahalaya has successfully published four (4) issues of its bilingual Museum bulletin 'Gandhi Sangbad/Gandhi News.' The contributors included eminent Scholars from a number of disciplines of social sciences.

6. Setting up of Temporary Exhibition Set on Satyagraha Movements in India by Mahatma Gandhi :

During this financial year the Sangrahalaya has successfully set up a temporary exhibition set on 'Satyagraher Satyanusandhan' (The Story of the different Movements in Indian Freedom Movement where Satyagraha was employed by Mahatma Gandhi as a means for fighting against the British Government).

7. Programmes and Activities :

a) Birthday Celebrations of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore (08/05/2016)

The Birthday Celebrations of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore was observed by the Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore, on May 8, 2016, at its premises. A programme was arranged to mark the occasion which took place in the evening from 4 p.m. The programme was based on the theme 'Tomay Notun Kore Pabo Bole' highlighting the sweet and intimate relation between Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore and Mahatma Gandhi. The programme started with the garlanding of the photograph of Rabindranath and Gandhiji, by the members of the Managing Committee of the Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore and other eminent persons present at the programme. A humble tribute was paid to Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore on behalf of the Sangrahalaya by the members of its staff with the item termed 'Amar Rabindranath' based on the poem on Tagore by Subho Dasgupta and songs written by Tagore. A Musical Soiree based on the relation between Tagore and Gandhiji was performed by the cultural group Muktangan Sanskritik Samsthha from Barrackpore. Finally, a unique programme of kabir larai (a competition between folk artists of impromptu folk songs composed and sung on the spot based on a particular theme) based on the relation between Gandhiji and Tagore took place. The kabir larai was performed by Sri Radha Krishna Tarja Samsthha headed by Kabiyal Jadab Chandra Mondal and his associates Kabiyal Mahadev Halder and Smt. Rama Halder and Dhol (indigenous drum of Bengal) player Sri Monoranjan Sarkar.

The programme received a lot of positive response from the audience especially the kabir larai which is a folk art that is fast dying out due to lack of new artists and if care is not taken to preserve it then it is certain to fall into disuse and be lost into oblivion.

b) An Informal 'Adda' with the Senior Citizens of a local Old-Age Home, involving exchange of thought about the life and activities of Mahatma Gandhi and Indian Freedom Movement (25/06/2016)

The Sangrahalaya organized a programme for the senior citizens involving the mutual exchange of thought about the life and works of Mahatma Gandhi as well as their personal experiences about the Freedom Movement of our Country, at its premises on June 25, 2016. The inmates of the local Old Age Home Bholananda Bridhashram were invited to the Sangrahalaya for the programme. They were provided with a Guided tour of the Sangrahalaya and shown the documentary, titled 'Role of Barrackpore in the Freedom Movement in India' from the collection of the Sangrahalaya. A Notebook for their personal use, based on the life and activities of Gandhiji in photographs and text was released by the two senior most inmates from among the ladies and gentlemen. Finally, the inmates and the staff of the Sangrahalaya sat down for an informal chat that involved exchange of the experiences of the senior citizens about seeing Gandhiji in person, the Freedom Movement of India and other incidents of the bygone era. The response from the inmates of the Bridhashram was overwhelming and the programme was a great success.

c) Celebration of 70th Independence Day (15/08/2016)

The 70th Independence Day

was celebrated on August 15, 2016 at the premises of the Sangrahalaya in a befitting manner. The national flag was hoisted by Shri Pratik Ghosh, Director-Secretary, Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore at 9:30 am in the morning. The guests included the local senior citizens, distinguished persons of the area and members of different cultural institutions. After flag hoisting a ‘Sit and Draw Competition’ for children, was organized by the Sangrahalaya 10:30 am onwards. The participants included students from the local academic institutions as well as the local art schools. The competition included three categories -

Group A – age 5 to 8 years, Group B – age 8+ to 12 years and Group C – 12+ years to 16 years. Group A had thirty seven (37) participants, Group B had forty five (45) and Group C had twenty four (24) participants which implies that there were a total of 106 participants in the competition.

The participants of Groups A and B could draw according to their choice while the topic for Group C was Swadhin Bharat O Amra (Independent India and Us). The judges included Sri Maichel Bose, Principal of Pranavananda Art Institution, Kolkata and renowned artist Sri Debasish Mullick

Chowdhury.

The Sit and Draw Competition was followed by the presentation of the life of Mahatma Gandhi in Animation for the audience and after the Film Show ended a performance of mime based on the theme of significance of Independence Day was put up by Indian Mime Theatre, Kolkata. The show was immensely enjoyed by the children as well as their guardians. Finally, at the end of the programme the
