

Day-long Workshop on Peace & Harmony (10/04/2018)

The Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore was invited by the authority of Ashok Nilay Nivedita College of Education, Ullon, Ramlochanpur, Mandirbazar, 24 Parganas (South) on April 10, 2018 to organize a day-long Workshop regarding Peace and Harmony. The whole workshop was divided into three sessions. The students of the Ashok Nilay Nivedita College of Education and V.S.S.U. International School were the participants of the workshop. The inaugural session was started with the inaugural speech, was delivered by Professor Shashadhar Purkait, President of Ashok Nilay Nivedita College of Education. After this, the Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya was presented an interactive audio-visual presentation on 'Role of National Integrity in Promoting of Peace and Harmony'. The Sangrahalaya also set up a temporary exhibition in there on Life & Activities of Mahatma Gandhi along with the various Satyagraha Movements, which were led by Mahatma Gandhi in India, entitled 'Satyagrahir Satyanusandhan'. Before starting the second session all the students experienced about this informative exhibition. In second session, a documentary film - Muktir Banhishikha, the Role of Barrackpore in Indian Freedom Movement was shown, which was highly appreciated by the audience. At the end of the workshop an audio-visual spot quiz on life and activities of Mahatma Gandhi was also conducted by the Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya and the winners were awarded with the mementoes from the Sangrahalaya.

