Preface

Two considerations had been uppermost in our mind when we decided to bring out this Catalogue of books in our Library; constant queries about books by and on Gandhiji from different quarters, even abroad and the growing number of titles here. Also since we do not maintain cards on books other than Gandhian and the subjects of books are varied, the reading public in general and scholars in particular have been demanding such a publication. As for the arrangement since the bias here is Gandhian titles by and on Gandhiji have been entered first with an eye to both national and international and international clientele English scripts has also been used for books on Gandhiana in Bengali and Hindi languages, etc. The books entered are up to 31st March, 2006
