

Distribution of the New Dresses to the Underprivileged Children in Bankura District (09.10.2021):

The Sangrahalaya reached at Hijildiha Vivekananda Seva Samiti Ashram in Bankura District to distribute the new dresses to the Underprivileged Children of the different centres of that Ashram before starting the Durga festival. The Sangrahalaya took such initiative to bring the glorious feeling of the grand celebration of the 75th anniversary of Independence be developed in their minds by dressing up in new clothes during the great occasion of Durga Puja.

