

Participation in Online Lecture (18.07.2021):

Heritage Society, Patna in collaboration with Museums Association of India is celebrating 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav' by organizing the Year-long Distinguished Weekly Lecture Series through their virtual platform.

The Organizers had invited Dr. Pratik Ghosh, Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya to deliver an online lecture on 'Museum and Community Development - A Case Study of Community Engagement Initiatives at Gandhi Memorial Museum, Barrackpore' on July, 18, 2021. The Live Streaming programme was presented through the YouTube Channel and Facebook Page of Heritage Society, Patna.

The poster is a rectangular graphic with a brown and gold color scheme. At the top left, it says 'Organised by' with logos for 'HERITAGE SOCIETY' and 'Museums Association of India'. At the top right, it says 'Conceptualised by' with the 'sanat' logo. The central text reads 'Heritage Society in the joint collaboration of Museums Association of India'. Below this, it says 'Cordially invite you in the Year-long Distinguished Weekly Lecture Series to celebrate Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav' and 'Episode-06'. The main title is 'Museums of India Collections, Historic Themes and Aspirations' and the specific topic is 'Museum and Community Involvement: A Case Study of Community Engagement Initiatives at Gandhi Memorial Museum, Barrackpore'. The bottom section features five circular portraits of the participants: Prof. Neeru Misra (Chairperson), Dr. Pratik Ghosh (Distinguished Speaker), Dr. Anand Vardhan (Welcome Address), Dr. A. Dwivedi (Vote of Thanks), and Azad H. G. Nanda (Moderator). The bottom of the poster includes the date '18 July, 2021', time '4 pm (IST)', and contact information: 'https://heritagesociety.in', 'heritagesociety.in@gmail.com', '+91-7761902685', and 'Live Streaming on' with social media icons for YouTube, Facebook, and Instagram.
