

Participation in a day-long Seminar on 'Practicing History on the basis of Folk Education' (08.04.2021):

Corpus Research Institute (CRI) - a well-known Academic Body for all practitioners of History, which was founded in 1996 by the History Alumni of Jadavpur University, organized a day-long Seminar on 'Practicing History on the basis of Folk Education' at Jodhpur Park, Kolkata on April 8, 2021.

Professor Chittabrata Palit, Former Professor, Department of History, Jadavpur University and Dr. Chitta Panda, Former Director of Victoria Memorial Museum, Kolkata presided over the two sessions of the Seminar. Dr. Rangankanti Jana, Director of Burdwan University Museum was the main Speaker in the first session.

CRI also invited Dr. Pratik Ghosh, Director-Secretary of Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore as the main Speaker in the second session of the Seminar. He delivered his lecture on 'Revolution of Bengal's Folk Culture in view of Historical Research'.

In the last session of the Seminar a book, entitled 'Practicing History on the basis of Folk Education' in bengali was released in presence of the delegates.

