

Participation in 47th International Kolkata Book Fair – 2024
(from January 18 to January 31, 2024)

Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya participated in 47th International Kolkata Book Fair, 2024. The Sangrahalaya presented a special exhibition on 'Mahatma Gandhi - The Millenium Man in Stamps: the Courier of Truth and Non-violence', which was composed of almost 100 postal Stamps, released in several occasions from different countries of the World to commemorate our 'Father of the Nation' - Mahatma Gandhi in its Exhibition-cum-Book Stall at the Book Fair ground. Beside this, some of the rare exhibits like the scale model of 'Charkha' or the Spinning Wheel and some replicas of Gandhiji's used Articles and some archival materials - copy of Gandhiji's Bengali Hand Writing, the copies of Letters written by Gandhiji by using his both hands, were also displayed in the stall. The Books, presented in Sangrahalaya's Stall, highlighted the influence of Mahatma Gandhi on Indian literature and a few renowned authors in India and abroad and all these books also focused on the aspects of Gandhiji as a Writer, Editor, Journalist, Publisher and a Communicator, whose voice touched a million hearts.

