

Inauguration of Eco-friendly Organic Garden at the premises of Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore and Annual General Convocation of Sustainable Agriculture (06.11.22)

Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore in collaboration with 'Jaibo Samidh Biotech' had taken an initiative to develop an Eco-friendly Organic Garden at the premises of the Sangrahalaya. The Eco-friendly Organic Garden was inaugurated at the meeting of the Annual General Convocation, held at the Auditorium of the Sangrahalaya on November 6, 2022.

Shri Purnendu Basu, Former Agriculture Minister of Government of West Bengal and Chairperson of West Bengal State Council of Technical & Vocational Education and Skill Development was presided over the meeting and Smt. Dola Sen, Member of Parliament, Government of India conducted the meeting.

The Members of Sustainable Agriculture from various districts of West Bengal had come to attend the meeting. Dr. Pratik Ghosh, Director-Secretary of Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore had discussed the significance of development of such Eco-friendly Garden in the premises of the Sangrahalaya and he had also explained the future planning of such new initiative of the Sangrahalaya to the delegates, so that it would become a Model of sustainable agriculture in this area to create a mass awareness among the general people about the necessity of organic farming in near future. The Organic Farmers, who have already involved in sustainable agriculture in different parts of West Bengal, shared their experiences, discussed about various problems, which have been faced by them in this field in the first session of the meeting. In the next session various advices and suggestions regarding the sustainability of organic farming procedure were given by the experts present in the meeting. In the Presidential address, Shri Purnendu Basu discussed about the problems, solutions and possibilities of sustainable agriculture and about the rationality of sustainable agriculture in present time. Dr. Mamta Kansay, IDES, Chief Executive Officer of Barrackpore Cantonment Board concluded the meeting.

