

Opening Ceremony of Special Exhibition to Mark the Occasion of 75th Anniversary of Our Independence (13.08.2022 – 15.08.2022)

To mark the occasion of 75th Anniversary of our Independence, Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore organized a Special Exhibition on 'India Towards Freedom' and on 'Heroic Saga of Bengal's Women Freedom Fighters' from August 13 to August 15, 2022. The exhibition was inaugurated on August 13 at the premises of the Sangrahalaya in presence of students of some institutions and the visitors, who visited the Museum on that day. At the beginning of the inaugural programme the Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya along with other dignitaries lightened the lamp and delivered the Welcome address to the audience. The theme of the exhibition was the history of Indian Freedom Movement from 1857 to 1947 and it was presented by exhibiting of rare photographs along with necessary information regarding the important events of Indian Independence Movement. To pay the homage to Bengal's Women Freedom Fighters, the Sangrahalaya also exhibited the contribution of 75 Bengali Women Freedom Fighters along with their photographs and information. The Sangrahalaya also arranged the documentary film shows on our Freedom Movement at the site of the exhibition.
