

National Seminar on 'Innovating Museums for the Future' at State Museum, Ranchi, Jharkhand (19.03.2025 – 20.03.2025)

The Department of Culture, Government of Jharkhand was invited the Director-Secretary of Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore as a Speaker in the 2 days' National Seminar on 'Innovating Museums for the Future', which was held on the 19th and 20th of March 2025 at the State Museum, Ranchi Jharkhand.

Hon'ble Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture of Government of Jharkhand, Shri Sudivya Kumar, inaugurated the Seminar on 19 March, 2025. The Seminar was dedicated to reimagining the role of museums in preserving heritage, harnessing technology and engaging communities. Dr. Pratik Ghosh, Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya delivered his lecture on 'Museum and Community Involvement: Strategies of Gandhi Memorial Museum, Barrackpore in West Bengal'. Many dignitaries from several parts of the country delivered their valuable views on the topic of Seminar on 'Innovating Museums for the Future'. At the end of the Seminar a delightful Cultural Programme highlighting the culture of the State of Jharkhand was also organised by the State Museum, Ranchi.

