

Participated in the National Seminar on ‘Museum for 2047: Envisioning the Indian Museums’, organized by Allahabad Museum, Prayagraj in Uttar Pradesh (20.09.2024 – 22.09.2024)

The Allahabad Museum, Prayagraj organized a three-day National seminar on ‘Museum for 2047: Envisioning the Indian Museums’ from September 20 - September 22, 2024 at Allahabad Museum. The seminar aimed to provide an academic platform for the researcher/ academicians/ organization to share their views, present research works and discuss on the various subjects of the theme of the seminar. The organizer invited the Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya to participate in the seminar and requested to present a paper on the theme of the seminar. On behalf of the Sangrahalaya the Director-Secretary attended the seminar and delivered his lecture on ‘Revolution in Communication of Cultural Object in the Digital Age through Museums’.

