

Participatory Programme at Barsul Bratachari Sangha, Burdwan (10.05.2019)

Barsul Bratachari Sangha, Burdwan, recognised by Bengal Bratachari Society celebrated 138th Birth Anniversary of Shri Gurusaday Dutta at their place on May 10, 2019. They invited the Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore to attend their programme. The Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya attended their programme as Special Guest and delivered his speech on relevance of Bratachari Art in present society and he also mentioned the basic similarity of thinking of Gurusaday Dutta to promote such practical art in the field of education along with other renowned personalities during that time like Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore and Mahatma Gandhi. Shri Nitish Kumar Malik, MLA of North Burdwan Assembly was also present in this programme. The Learners of Bratachari Art of this organisation performed various performances, which were the special attractions of this programme and hope they will be success to preserve this legend Art of our Bengal for our future generations.

