

Closing Ceremony of the Training Programme for group of Women (10.01.2021)

Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya, Barrackpore organized the Closing Ceremony of the Training Programme on 'Making of Hand-made Jewelleries' for group of Women on January 10, 2021. The four months' duration training programme was completed on March, 2020. In view of the difficulties for the present pandemic situation the programme for celebrating the closing ceremony of this training programme was organized on January 10, 2021.

Smt. Shuktisita Bhattacharya, Special Secretary of the Department of Panchayats & Rural Development, Government of West Bengal was present as Chief Guest to grace the occasion. Shri Manideep Dey, the Trainer of the present training and Shri Nilay Chatterjee and Smt. Nandita Ray, the Trainers of the next training on 'Basic Design of Fabric & Boutique and Tailoring' were also present to interact with the trainees. The programme was conducted by Dr. Pratik Ghosh, Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya.

At the beginning of the programme the participants of the present training course presented the inaugural song. Smt. Bhattacharya delivered her valuable suggestions regarding the scope and future activities of the participants after their training. An exhibition was also arranged by displaying their products, which they had made during their training period. At the end of the programme the certificates were provided to the trainees.

