

SPECIAL VISIT

Smt. Tara Gandhi Bhattacharjee, Granddaughter of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi and Chairperson of National Gandhi Museum, New Delhi came to the Sangrahalaya to deliver the Key-note address in National Seminar on 'Remembering Mahatma Gandhi: Ideology & Relevance in the Contemporary World' on March 3, 2020. She visited the Sangrahalaya on March 5, 2020. She was provided with a guided tour by the Director-Secretary of the Sangrahalaya and after visiting the Museum she commented on visitors' book "The visit has been very spiritually moving experience. I am full of admiration to gratitude as a citizen of the country. It has been privilege to be received by Respected Shri Narayan Basu on the bank of river Ganga at the Gandhi Smarak Sangrahalaya. I am grateful to all the hospitality arranged by Dr. Pratik and his friends – I will come back".
